Gentlemen:

I have recently acquired a collection of around twelve-hundred old coins, both U. S. and foreign, and I would like very much to obtain some books pertaining to same. Please advise me what books or information you have in regard to the above.

Thanking you very much for your kindness,
I am

Yours very truly,

E. R. McDAVID, JR.

Dear Sir:

In response to your inquiry of the 10th,
Rawling's "Coins and How to Know Them", and "Scott's "Silver and Copper Coins of the World", would I believe, answer your need. The second title could probably be had through Rudolph Kohler, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Trusting this information will prove to be what you are seeking,

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Gentlemen:

I certainly appreciate yours of the 14th,
and I would like very much to get three or four books
on United States coins.

I am awfully anxious to get Coins and Coinage The United States Mint by A. M. Smith, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa. I have written to A. M. Smith, but my letter has been returned unclaimed. I would also like to have the Rocky Mountain Coin Encyclopoedia, published by the Adair Book, Stamp and Coin Company, of Denver, Colorado. They are in the hands of a receiver and I have been unable to get a copy.

If you could give me information as to where
I might buy these books I certainly will appreciate it.

Thanking you very much for your kindness, I am

Yours very truly,

E. R. McDAVID, JR.

Mr. E. R. McDavid, Jr.
Fidelity Life Insurance Co.
Watts Bldg.
Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Sir:

Responding to your letter of the 23rd, the book regarding the United States Mint, you mention, is a government publication and I think it is now out of print. I do not quite see how it would be very helpful for you, although not knowing the scope of your collection it is difficult for me to be sure of this. If you should write to Mr. Kohler, you might ask him if he has a copy.

The Rocky Mountain Coin Encyclopoedia is not known to me, but it sounds like a dealer's price list, and as such, would hardly be helpful. Dealers' price lists for U. S. coins are issued by Guttag Bros., 95 Broad Street, New York, and by the Elder Coin and Curio Company, 8 West 37th Street, New York, at a price in the neighborhood of a dollar, if I remember correctly.

I hope this information will help you. If it does not, please write further.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

New York City, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

I certainly appreciate your letter of January 27th, and as suggested I have written Gutttag Brothers and the Elder Coin & Curio Co.

Thanking you very much for your kindness and past favors.
